Covet desk

Particle shelving

Case Furniture, UK

A desk and a modular shelf are launched by the British furniture manufacturer, Case Furniture.

A simple and functional home office desk, 'Covet' has an innovative storage solution integrated into its solid oak frame, which supports a large glass work surface. The two legs which hold the top structure create a shelf for A4-size documents. The modular shelf "Particle" can be used from both sides and is ideal as a partition. One module consists of alternately stacked 5 box units, and several modules can create a wider corner shelf to fit into any space.

Place : Case Furniture Ltd, 189 Stonhouse Street, London SW4 6BB

Compact Induction Heating Hob

Tefal, France / Japan

A tabletop Induction Heating hob was launched by the French kitchenware manufacturer Tefal. It was firstly introduced into the Japanese market. This high-end model of the IH hob has a polished ceramic glass top which adds a sophisticated look to tabletop cooking which is popular in Japan. The control panel is separated from the cooking surface to ensure safety, while keeping it compact and stylish.
